A TALK ON VIENNA

The quarterly meeting of the Tees-side Sub-Union of Adult Schools was held at West Hartlepool on Saturday. A paper on Vienna was given by Miss Dora Bernstein, an Austrian refugee. She described Vienna previous to the World War as a centre of intellectual life and culture, where art flourished and the value of education was realized. She referred to the beauty of the city and its safe life. The war of 1914-18 brought the downfall of Vienna, and though it recovered slightly, the Hitler invasion completed its ruin. The old Vienna does not exist. The city is a place of poverty, misery, and fear. Miss Bernstein spoke of her own bitter experiences, her departure from Austria, and her journey to England. Having been told that the English were cold, unsmiling, and reserved, she dreaded her arrival, but her fears were soon removed. Especially was she surprised to see a smiling policeman. After the talk tea was served and a collection taken for the United Aid to China Fund.

DEATH OF MR. PETER LEECH

The death took place on Saturday in the Cameron Hospital, after a very brief illness, of Mr. Peter Leech, of Seaton Carew. Born at Wrexham in 1878, Mr. Leech came to West Hartlepool in 1918 as divisional manager of an insurance company, having previously served in a similar capacity at Exeter and Leeds. In 1930 he commenced business in the town as an estate agent and valuer, and when shortly afterwards, the Sunderland Working-men's Building Society opened a local office, Mr. Leech was their first agent. Although he had been in indifferent health for some years, Mr. Leech was a familiar figure in the town. He leaves a widow, two sons and a daughter (Mrs. Adlard), with whom much sympathy will be felt. One of the sons, Mr. Samuel Leech, has been in partnership with his father for many years, and the other son, Mr. Jack Leech, who held a post in London, joined the Army on the outbreak of war and is now serving overseas. Mr. Leech was an ardent Wesleyan, and subscribed largely to the building of the new church at Seaton Carew, where the funeral service will be held at noon on Tuesday.

DEATH OF FORMER COUNCILLOR

Mr. Robert Fawcett, a well-known former West Hartlepool business man and member of the Town Council, died at Appleton Wiske, Yorks., on Saturday at the age of 77. A native of West Hartlepool, Mr. Fawcett was in business here as an auctioneer and valuer for many years. His second attempt to secure election to the Town Council was in a notable by-election in the South-West Ward on Jan. 22, 1924, caused by the death of Coun. Miles Swinburne. There were no fewer than seven candidates for the vacancy and Coun. W. J. Watt was elected with 680 votes, Mr. Fawcett being second with 576 votes. In November the same year, Mr. Fawcett was returned as a representative of the South-West Ward, with 1,251 votes against 1,115 in favour of Mr. W. H. E. Sparks, and 387 for Mr. Bernard Green. He retained the seat in 1927 with 1,212 votes compared with 826 in favour of his only opponent, the late Ald. J. W. J. Richardson, but he did not seek re-election at the end of his second term. He was a brother-in-law of Mr. Albert Bowers, who recently retired from the post of commercial assistant in the Corporation Electricity Department.

FOR R.A.F. SPORTS FUND

A non-stop dance in aid of the Royal Air Force Sports Fund will be held in the Borough Hall, Hartlepool, on Wednesday. The Rhythmic Dance Orchestra and a regimental dance band will be in attendance. Tickets are obtainable from Marine Hotel, Bruce Moore's, Devon, Raglan, and Market Hotel, Hartlepool.

EASTER FLOWER PROBLEM

A difficult problem will be set for the churches this Easter in finding flowers for decorative purposes and in several of the local parish magazines of current issue an appeal is made to those who may be able to help. It is not suggested that there should be any expensive outlay in the provision of flowers, but that members of churches may have some available from their own gardens. Lilies of remembrance will in most cases be out of the question, but a wealth of beauty can be provided by the simplest variety of flowers.

MENTIONED FOR GALLANTRY

Private Stanley Coleman (24), of the Green Howards, an old boy of St. Aidan's School, who was later employed in the electricity department of the Corporation at Burn Road, has had the distinction of being mentioned in Army records "for gallantry and devotion to duty during the past 18 months in the Middle East." He has sent home to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Coleman, of 78 Sydenham Road, West Hartlepool, a card signed by General Alexander which reads: "Your name has been brought to my notice for your gallantry in action. I thank you for your devotion to duty and for the high example that you have set." Pte. Coleman joined up at the outbreak of war.

GRANGE ROAD BROTHERHOOD

Visitors at yesterday's open session included members of the Sea Cadet Corps, coast-guards, lifeboatmen, and N.F.S. Messengers, the occasion being "Sailors' Sunday." The pres. Mr. J. F. White, was in the chair, supported by Messrs J. Dunn R. Dow, T. A. Wood, Geo. Askew, and C. O. Thompson. Mr. Harry R. Carter, Heugh light keeper, read the lesson. The seaman's chaplain, Rev. J. Fulton, gave an interesting talk on the work of the missions of "The Flying Angel." Master Reginald King delighted with his rich soprano voice in "Oh, for the wings of a dove" and "Angels ever bright and true." His grandfather, Sub-Lieut. King, R.N.V.R., accompanied him on the cello and also rendered two well-chosen selections, "Angels guard thee" and "Van Bie's Phantom Melody." These were well received. Mr. J. Davison expressed thanks. Mr. J. Davison expressed thanks.

BAND'S SUCCESS

This week-end the West Hartlepool Mission Band has accomplished its best performance since its formation. In the area qualifying round, they have scored against Horden, the county league champions of 1942. The contest was arranged by the County Brass Band League, and was held at Horden. Four bands competed, each band playing three test pieces. Result: Selection—1. West Hartlepool Mission; 2. Horden; 3. Easington N.F.S.; 4. Wingate. March—1. Horden; 2. West Hartlepool; 3. Easington N.F.S.; 4. Wingate. Test Piece—1. West Hartlepool; 2. Horden; 3. Easington N.F.S.; 4. Wingate. Out of a possible 12 points West Hartlepool Mission gained 11, Horden 10, Easington six, and Wingate three. Great credit is due to the Mission bandmaster, Mr. C. Mirelev, for the honours gained. There was a packed hall. The adjudicator was Mr. Jack Atherton, of South Shields, bandmaster of the famous Harton Colliery Band.

FOOD FACTS

Don't think your family need go short of body-building foods. True, meat, cheese, and eggs are rationed, fish supplies are variable—but you can still get your proteins in another way. Here is how: dried peas, beans, and lentils—what we call the pulses—are good body builders in themselves. Better still, Food Scientists have discovered that beans and peas are "stepped up" in their protein values if cooked with a little meat, Household Milk, fresh milk, cheese, dried egg, or fish. So don't think of them as just vegetables.

WAYS TO MAKE THE MEAT GO FURTHER

Soak peas or bean overnight, cook with your meat stew.
 Mix cooked dried peas with fresh vegetables and cover with cheese pastry.
 Mince beans (soaked overnight) with meat for Shepherd's Pie.
 Mashed cooked peas or lentils mixed with cheese sauce make splendid sandwich fillings.

NEW RATION BOOKS

You won't get your new Ration Book, etc., quickly unless the particulars on your present Ration Book and Identity Card are up-to-date. If the name, address and national registration number are not correct on both, take them to the Food Office at once.

FIVE DAYS ON ICE-FLOE

After drifting for five days on an ice floe only 30 yards square in the wintry waters of Northumberland Strait, near the mouth of the St. Lawrence River, four members of a crashed Canadian Air Force bomber have been rescued by an ice-breaker.—Reuter.

More than 15,000 tons of coal have been saved in six months by the railways winter ban on waiting-room fires at nearly 7,000 stations.

HOME GUARD MAY HAVE ITS A.T.S.

A statement is expected shortly on the possibility of forming a Women's Auxiliary Service for the Home Guard on the lines of the A.T.S. Already nearly 30,000 women are unofficially attached to the Home Guard, doing voluntary work as clerks, typists, and cap-tain helpers.

The new corps would give them official status and show appreciation of their valuable work, and such recognition would draw welcome recruits.

FORGET WINTER'S BLACKOUT WELCOME SPRING!

Spring! How you've longed for it. But to enjoy Spring to the full you must rid your system of Winter acids. Because of stuffy rooms, lack of exercise, fresh air and sunshine, your system has become far too acid, your blood sluggish and heavy. You feel off colour and listless. There is one sure way to rid your system of these Winter acids. Take a few doses of 'Milk of Magnesia' the brand of antacid which Doctors use to deal with excess acid. It will cleanse your blood, banish sluggishness and add a new zest to life.

'MILK OF MAGNESIA'
